Alright,
you are Software Quality Assurance Specialist

searching for a proper internship

for the summer?

This is for You!

We are a software development company called Ignite (www.ignite.ee) and here are some things you might want to know about us:

› Flat structure

We believe that people are smart enough to manage and organize themselves.

› Transparency and communication

We are open to discussions and changes. Every decision is shaped according to the needs of our people.

› Different technologies

Gain knowledge in Java, SaaS for Recruitment, Atlassian products and Blockchain/Ethereum development with us.

› Work language is English

We have a multinational team of 40 people.

Anything and everything we do, it needs to be tested. That's why we are looking for a Software Quality Assurance intern!

Your challenge (in the future):

- You will be working in a multifunctional team, writing automated tests as well as making sure the whole product has the required quality.
- Strong decision making skills are needed as you will have the final say on product release.
- Your work will include direct communication with customer, analyzing requirements and requests handled by the team.
- We are looking for someone who is able to actively participate from day one of the project.

We don't expect you to have it all right from the start, but willingness and ability to constantly learn is required.

If you are ready to join our talented and professional team, we welcome you to our open and friendly Ignite family.

Our offer:

- You will become one of our talented people who deliver working software solutions daily.
- We provide enough guidance and plenty of challenges so you can become the best in the field.
- Our people's excessive knowledge on creating software will be at your service.
- And of course, all your professional efforts will be well rewarded.
